Glenson Place – Claremont

We are excited to announce our new property Glenson Place, developed with the assistance of Homes Tasmania. This is the first purpose-built independent living property providing supports to Tasmanian NDIS participants with psychosocial disability in the community.

Our focus is on providing person-centred support, and we are excited to start operating from August 2024.

Smoking is not permitted indoors. Pets are not permitted.

If you are interested in living in our beautiful community, please send your Expression of Interest now via our website or call us on (03) 6228 3344.

Glenson Place is safe and suitable accommodation on a modern property comprised of individual self-contained apartments.
